“ Dad we will miss you a lot. I remember words of wisdom from you and the most recent this year was "Son...whatever you do, don't get old." Now that's one I just don't have a comeback for. Of course we all strive to get older and Dad did his best to do so. Sometimes when we visited he would say he had to go upstairs when there was no upstairs, what he meant was he was going to heaven. Dad was a generous person who liked to socialize and make new friends. I am sure he has made a lot of new friends and met a lot of old friends now...Good bye Dad, until we meet again.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Bobby's passing. We were neighbors, and spent a lot of time solving the world's problems. We had an ice storm several years ago, 4 or 5 miserable days without power. Several of us neighbors were standing outside, when Bob came to his front door, pumping both fists in the air, and cheering that the power was back on. I'll never forget that. We miss him. “ To my father-in-law, Bobby Britton, your soul are now home, resting in the kingdom of our God the Creator where there is no pain and suffering anymore. Your absence will be missed dearly but the memories of you will not be forgotten. I am so blessed and ever grateful to had you as my fathe-in-law, a second father I looked up to when I came to America. You treated me as if I was your own daughter, and you're always there to support us when we needed help even if we don't mention it. I know, you always told me to take care of your only son, don't you worry Dad, as I promised to you we both taking care of each other, along with your granddaughter, Faythe.

“ Bobby showed a great love for my sister Betty. He treated her like a man should treat a woman. I was very fond of him. He always had a smile for everyone he was introduced to and continued that same greeting when ever someone would see him again. A very kind gentile man with a great personality. I will truly miss him.
