“ I am so sorry for the loss of Carolyn! My heart aches for all of you. I remember when we all lived in the Pinewood Apartments and Carolyn put a note on our door with her number on it. She wanted to talk with us about an incident that took place with Robert and Nick. So, I contacted her and she came over to talk. I will never forget the end of the conversation when she said to Robert: "Well...you dummy, Robert! Why would you tell someone to try and hit you while they are holding a baseball bat in their hands?!" It was so funny the way she said it! She did have a good point, though! I also remember her talking about her love for her son and how much she missed him when he was in the military and across seas. The other memories I have of her was when she would talk about her Grandson, Adam! I could tell her boys were the LOVES of her life!! She was so proud of Robert and Adam! You could see it in her face, hear it in her voice and see it in her eyes the passion she felt when she spoke of them!! Pure LOVE! Our hearts, our thoughts and our prayers are with ALL of you and her loved ones. God Bless Always and RIP, Carolyn.... With Love, Kay Jackson
