“ I am so very sorry to hear about Mr Page. I just found out today. Please know I most certainly would have been at the service if I'd known. He was one of the few friends of my parents that kept up with them on a regular basis. Even with Covid he'd still bring them a bag of magazines, notes and a picture or drawing of his and leave it on the porch for them or me to retrieve. Before the pandemic he'd come in and visit with them and truly make their day, actually he'd make their week!! I remember him and Mrs Page with many fond memories from Maple Hill Presbyterian Church and later Bristol Hill. He will truly be missed. He was a gem.

“ He was the best grandpa! He was so kind, accepting, and gentle. We will miss his paintings and stories he loved to share with anyone.
