“ Our hearts are heavy but we know that he is at peace now. We're sure that he had many of his loved ones (including Patches) welcoming him.

While he was here in Texas we saw a side of him that we'd not experienced before. He became a social butterfly. Everyone on our block knew George and patches. He would get invited in to have morning coffee with a neighbor while on his daily walk. He was invited to several get togethers, by our neighbors, and he went. (Our neighbors had never spoke with us before George came). Even our mailwoman got to know him. They'd have daily conversations and she still asks about him. He enjoyed adventures on his scooter. It had two speeds, Turtle and Rabbit. He'd go with Turtle. He enjoyed himself on a daily basis.

He got to meet and hold his great-great grand baby Sophie when our granddaughter, Stacey's daughter, Sierra visited us. And he got spend time with his four grandsons, Joseph, Aidan, Conner and Milo. George was fascinated with the name Milo. He said he use to plants fields of Milo on the farm (which is an important grain grown in the US). We had no idea. George was a very smart and creative person.

All of us will miss him and love him forever. Michael, Marsha, Stacey, Heather, Adam, JoJo, Aidan, Conner, Milo, Ollie, Paulie, Mikie, Sierra, Audrie and Zoe.
