

Kable B. Butterfield

April 19, 1978 - January 29, 2020

Kable Butterfield Sr., 41, of Kansas City, Kansas passed away on January 29, 2020. Kable was born on April 19, 1978 the son of Eldon Clell Butterfield and Peggy Atkinson-Butterfield.

Kable graduated from Kansas City Kansas Community College with an Associate's degree in Mortuary Science. However, he was better known as a chef at Callahan's which he started in 2013. In his spare time, Kable enjoyed playing videogames with his friends and attending concerts with his wife, Christy. He was a huge music fanatic. Kable was also known for his love of sports- baseball and football in particular (Go Royals). Aside from his many hobbies, Kable was mostly known as a family man. Kable loved his son dearly and certainly loved his wife Christy and his momma. He extended a loving arm to everyone no matter who they were or where they came from- he saw the good in everything. It's known that Kable was an unforgettable person and loved by many.

Kable is preceded in death by both grandparents and his father, Eldon. He is survived by his loving wife Christy of the home; son Kable Brit Butterfield Jr.; mother Peggy Atkinson-Butterfield; mother-in-law Mary Welch and father-in-law Jim Welch; sister-in-law Kayla Moore; Jeremy Crossland; Hunter Wilson and many friends and family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made out to the family.
