“ I am so very sorry for your loss. The Bible makes this comforting promise: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, he saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) It also assures us: "Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you." (Psalm 55:22) May these thoughts bring you a measure of comfort at this difficult time.

“ Agnes was my 2nd mom, she taught me a lot. How to make great potato salad and peach cobbler. Which I gladly made for her in later years when she couldn't. My most memorable thought was a vacation trip we took to Branson early in Penny and I's marriage. She seen to it we had a good time. And Penny and I have spread this joy to our family in our vacation adventures. I'm going to miss her. We were good buddies. She was there for us in our early years, I'm so happy we could be there for her in her last years. Love you Agnes. Have fun, tell Crystal hi.

“ I loved that every time I visited the Meyer family, that Agnes would be around to share a story or laugh. She was caring and loving to everyone she met. she made everyone feel as they're part of her family. I will miss her so much, but will cherish the moments I did get to know her.

“ One of my favorite memories I have of of my mom was - one winter around nine o'clock at night, we had just had a snow fall. I remember watching it out of my window. The street light seem to make the snow sparkle and glisten. It was so quite. I was so excited about the snow. School was canceled and I wanted so badly wanted to go sledding. Even though my mom had to work the next day she took us outside and went sledding down our street. It was so much fun sledding with my mom, laughing and having fun! I am going to miss you so much mom. My heart is so sad and heavy that I feel I can't breath. You were a great mom and always there for us. Heaven has another one of my angels.
