“ Great Aunt Aggie,

My heart breaks to hear that you are gone...I had no idea you had passed. I wish I could see you one last time to tell you how important you are to me. You were more like a grandmother and I will always cherish the time I spent with you. You were so kind and always had cookies made just for me...I still love doing puzzles now 20 years later thanks to you. Rest in peace sweet aunt, you are home.

Until we meet again,

“ I remember all the family gatherings we had at Aunt Aggie's. There were always lots of laughs and everyone had a good time. Aggie was always cooking up a storm!!!
I have never seen more salt and pepper shakers than what Aggie had, it was quite a collection! She will always be in my heart.

*Aunt Aggie,
I will miss you so greatly. I came up to last year visiting you until you were taken out of the Nursing Home and I wasn't told where you were. We had a lot of good memories, I love you so very much. I know you are now with your mom, dad, brothers and sisters. Now you are all together. You will live forever in my heart..... but now you must go to heavenly home. I love you.*
