

Angelica Michelle Echavarria

October 13, 1974 - August 27, 2020

Angelica Michelle Echavarria, 45, of Kansas City, MO, passed away unexpectedly on August 27, 2020 at 12:16pm in her home.

She was born October 13, 1974 in El Paso, TX the daughter of Miguel and Jessie Echavarria.

Angelica is known to her family and friends as Angel. The Greek word angelos which means “one who brings a message.” It’s a fitting name, because we have all witnessed one strong message from Angel her entire life, “Love.” She will be forever remembered by her deep love and devotion she had for her sons and family. Her passion was her boys, as she referred to them all. No matter age or distance, she fiercely carried them in her heart. Angel’s love, world, was her sons.

Angel’s past times were coloring, drawing and going to loose park to feed the ducks. She also loved to watch her boys play sports.

Angel's passion was helping anyone who needed help. She was always ready to jump right in, and was selfless in aiding others. Although Angel had no rhythm, it didn’t stop her from dancing. She loved dancing!

She is survived by five sons, DeMarko D. Echavarria, Antonio D. Echavarria, Diego D. Echavarria, Alejandro D. Echavarria, and Jessie N. Echavarria-Steward; siblings, Christina Echavarria, Miguel Echavarria, Rebeca Avila, Daniel Echavarria, David Echavarria, and Patricia Bowers; and a grandson Carter Vandik.

Due to COVID-19 Restrictions the family will hold a private celebration of life.
