“ Grandma was a delight to all who knew her! She had a sharp memory and quick wit. She loved her children, grands and great grands. One of my favorite memories that still makes me smile is when she was visiting my home in SC. I had a truck and went to help her up into it- she was about 80 at the time. She stopped me from helping with a good natured, “ I’m old, not an invalid!” She loved to talk and thrift which is something we both shared. She loved & raised horses and enjoyed going to rodeos with her second husband. She and my daughter bonded over horses and that’s so special to us. She was a wonderful friend and encouragement to old and young alike. We will miss her very much! I regret that we always lived so far away from KS, and missed out on many more memories than I have, but cherish each one dearly. Heaven is sweeter..
