“ April was always braver than me. I remember her driving in the ice and snow on 40 highway in Blue Springs, MO. I was very nervous but she was confident and help eased my anxiety. I admired her because she was not afraid to speak her mind. She always had beautiful blonde hair and a sparkle of mischief in her eyes. I loved her Mother Janice, she was my Step-Mother but I don't like that word. She was my Bonus Mother and my Best Friend and April was my Bonus Sister. I wish that April and I had spent more time together.

Nathaniel and Autumn, I know your hearts are aching, please let me know if you need anything. I loved your Mother, my Bonus Sister!
