SO

“ April, you were my very best friend for so many years I can't even count them. Even when we grew up & made our own friends you were still so dear to my heart. We made it a point to meet up when we could even if it was just for 20 minutes in the Walmart parking lot. I always made sure to call/text you at midnight on your birthday every single year. Even when calling at midnight wasn't possible, I made sure to call that day. I may pick up the phone this year out of habit & my heart break all over again. Though we had our own lives & didn't speak as much as we once did, we still loved each other so much & that was apparent every time we did speak or see each other. We have been friends for 20 years & losing you hurts. Luckily I have so many memories of us growing up together & also from adulthood that I can cherish forever. I was able to see you a few weeks before your passing & thank the Lord for that. I love you & your family as my own. I'll miss you forever.
