“ What a gift it has been to know both Merle and Artie. Being with them gave me a certainty of people's goodness. The world is a less rich place because of their passing.

I was always amazed at how Artie could anticipate a need and how quickly and graciously she would act on it. She seemed to live for gently helping others. I will always be grateful for her kindness to my daughter, Jamie Sue, who felt she had a best friend in Artie.

“ Our family was saddened on the lost of Aunt Art. She took great comfort in having her family' s love around her. She loved her family and knew how much they loved her. The Kirch family has beautiful memories of Aunt Art and she will live in each of our hearts forever. She is now in the arms of our loving Lord. She will be missed dearly. Love, Chuck, Kathy and family
