“ *Mr. Moran,
I was just a silly teen when I first met you. You were so welcoming then, and that never changed (neither did the relentless teasing). I will forever cherish the many conversations and advice about life.
Thank you for always being so kind to me and for being a constant presence in Gabe's life. The world has lost a wonderful man and heaven has gained an angel. May you rest in eternal peace. ~Gina “ Dad my heart aches every single day knowing your not physically here with us anymore. It helps to feel you telling me your no longer suffering from your illness and pain. I can hear your lectures and laughter still. I will keep those memories in my heart. Till we see each other again one day. I love you dad.

“ Mr. Moran,

I just wanted to thank you for accepting me as not only your son-in-law but as your own son. I will never forget the life lessons you shared with me and many things you taught me. I will never forget you and will save you a round on fight night.

Love you Pops!

“ Grandpa, you were such a caring and silly person and I will never forget that. I remember you asking me for help with your new phone and then the next day you traded it for a flip phone again because you couldn't stand how new phones worked. Or when we would come over and you would just make everyone smile and laugh with your jokes. I love you so much and I will always be your teddy ❤️

“ Grandpa, you gifted me with the giant loving family that we have now, I wouldn't be the person I am today without you! I will always remember and miss us grandchildren coming over to your old house to collect shiny rocks and roll down your big hill and then coming inside to play board games sometimes. I hope you will be in spirit with me as I go through college and life. There won't be a day that I don't think about you. I love you so much Grandpa, thank you for everything
