“ I have great memories of ceramic lessons in the basement, estate sales, and hours on the phone talking antiques and mannequins.. these are memories that always make me smile, and that I hold most dear... Aunt Barbara, you were loved and will be missed.. Robbie and Ted, my love and prayers are with you..

“ To the Hayes family I extend my deepest sympathy for your loss. She was such a beautiful lady. I first met her many years ago when I worked for the Turnbaugh's. I know how close she was to Annette and how much she admired her as many did. It was a pleasure to have known Barbara and I know how much she will be missed. Linda Wiese-Grandview
