

Barbara Quiroga

August 7, 1948 - November 2, 2010

Barbara Jean Quiroga, 62, passed away November 2, 2010 surrounded by her loving family after a tough battle with breast cancer. Memorial service will be 4 PM Saturday at Maple Hill Funeral home, where friends may call after 2 PM. She is preceded in death by her husband of 31 years, Greg Quiroga, her parents Delbert and Velma Bosler. She leaves behind 2 children, her daughter, Stephanie Salzer and husband Steve, son Phillip Quiroga and fiancé Hannah Evans, who will forever be thankful for her loving memories she has given them. She has 3 grandchildren, Anthony Quiroga, Stella and Audrey Salzer who along with her children were the loves of her life. One sister, Mary Wheeler and husband Tom. 2 soul sisters, Adela Crystal, Vickie Quiroga and many other relatives and friends. She was a great entertainer whether she was cooking, telling jokes or just acting silly. She will be forever missed and forever loved. A special thanks to all her friends at Trinity Rehab Nursing and especially Vitas Hospice for the special care for our mother, sister and friend, Barbara. Memorial donations may be made to Vitas Hospice and Trinity Rehab and Nursing.

“ My dear Barbara, where do I begin. She was a co-worker, confidant, and my maid of honor. We shared so many good times with laughter and tears. We lost touch for a while but she reconnected with me, I think, to say good bye. I will forever remember her and cherish her memory and love. -- Ruth Miller Campos
