“ My sincere condolences to them Garcia family. I will miss Mr Ben greatly!! He would always have Wonderful guidance to offer me. My grandparents Were all deceases before I was born. So I really appreciated our friendship. He'd be very firm in this instructions. It always began with "Don't!" "Don't let them, tell them, give them, show them. Don't do it!" To make certain I understood he'd end it with, " You hear me?" He always spoke highly of his family. Always. Protecting the family seemed to be his main and only interest. I'll miss him and his wisdom tremendously. God keep and Bless his family during this time of great loss.

“ I had the good fortune of meeting and visiting Mr. Garcia about 35 years ago with my good friend, Albert Franco. He and his wife were wonderful people, and I'll always remember his penchant for a good cigar. My deepest condolences to Juanita and family, and to all his family. May he rest in peace!
