“ Miss you Bernie ... still doesn't seem real that you are gone. So unfair, I always pictured us as two little old ladies talking crap and laughing about the good old days. You were my friend before you were my family. I love you ... Angie

“ *I remember the day i met you! The day u came into the lives of us all at LCOK! You touched us all in many different ways. Most of all the clients they love you they love you still and they are so confused as to where u went.
Bernie your cheer smile and dedication never went unseen and will forever be appreciated! Fly high Bernie and keep us with you as you will always be with us!!!!*

“ *I Started this at work with the clients and ended up taking ur home and working on it all night for the funeral today.
Thid was one of her favorite songs to sing with the clients and all I can picture is the big smiles on her face and theirs.
She was such a good hearted person, which is all to rare to come by now a days.

“ I will miss you Bernie! I know you will watch over all of your friends and loved ones as you did here on earth. I will see you again when it is my time. Condolences to all of Bernie's family for the loss of a wonderful heart and caring soul.

*I am learning how to live
In a new way
Since that day
You were taken away.*

*I am learning how to live
With the things left unsaid
Knowing I got to say them With every tear that I shed.*

*I am learning how to live
By embracing the pain
Knowing that you live on Through the memories that remain.*

*I am learning how to live
Knowing I will never again see your face
And I have peace knowing You're in a better place.*

*I am learning how to live
Knowing you're in God's care
It gives me the strength to move on And makes the pain much easier to bear.*
