“ I met Betty at Sunflower Apartments, she lived down the hall from me. Every night at 5, she would meet 2 of her friends that lived in Argentine and work puzzles. When I would see her taking her trash out, I would ask her if shhe wanted me to take it out for her, and she would sal will do it. She said she needed the exercise.

“ Gary and Susan,
I am so very saddened to read of your Mom's passing.
How very fortunate you have been to have her in your life for so many years and to make so many memories with her.
Thinking of your both, as well as your families.
