“ Aunt Betty will be very much missed. She was one of my favorite Aunt's. Our family's time together was very special to me and it didn't have to be the Holiday's; but they were the best. We would take a break from playing cards and Dad and Uncle Leo would break out their instruments and play while we made tacos or popcorn. And she would kid Dad about his painter's white coveralls and ask him (Uncle Jimmy you got on your Ice cream pants again)? She had a great sense of humor. They would make homemade ice cream at our summer picnics and it was the best. She went to join our other family members to celebrate Christmas with them while they are waiting for us to tag along and be a big family once again. She would also tell me I was her favorite niece and we would laugh about that. I love and miss you Aunt Betty! Janice McCormick

“ I'm so very sad to learn of this. It is the end of her earthly journey and the beginning of her heavenly journey. Even tho I did not see the family much after moving out of KC, I will always be thankful for all the good warm memories I have of growing up around the Browns. I loved being around them, especially at the holidays. It was so much fun. Aunt Betty made the best home made pies (none of that store bought for her!). If I could go back in time, I would do it again. I would love to hear Uncle Leo play guitar and sing and then we would all sit around the table playing cards and snacking (and joking and laughing).

I too am sad to hear of Aunt Betty's passing. She was very much one of my favorite Aunt's. We all as a family had the best time ever when we would get together; and it didn't even have to be the Holiday's, but; they were very special. We would play cards and take a break to make tacos or popcorn and Dad and Uncle Leo would break out their instruments while we were doing that. It was the best time ever; I never will forget. And Aunt Betty would ask Dad; Uncle Jimmy you got your ice cream pants on again? (Referring to his painter's white coverall's). She also had a great sense of humor. I love her and miss her and all of our times together. She went to join them so they could have their own Christmas celebration together while they are waiting for the rest of us to tag along! Janice E. McCormick one of the niece's.(Her favorite one).

She was such a beautiful woman. Always made me laugh. Took me to yard sales every weekend. Got me ready for school when i was still so young. Help me hide my make up so aunt vicki could not steal it. Let me help her clean the house. Watched me play outside on my swing set. How i used to run and play with daisy outside. Or went over to the neighbors to play with their crochet set. We used to go to 7th street barbeque when there were still open and have a good meal and grandpa would chow down on some ribs. I remember the time me and grandpa got in that wreck because "the lady in front of him wasn't watching where she was going" lol and he told me not to tell grandma and i ran inside and told her. "Could never keep a secret" lol i remember every family get together was tacos. But most of all i remember Christmas id watch her cook her heart out pies, and cookies and meats and then when the time came she would get us both dressed up and we would play Christmas music and grandpa would play his guitar and i would sing with him on his side in my red dress. Lacey gee her favorite great grand child lol
