“ I guess the best memories of my Aunt Bev would have been recently. She started needing some help about 2 1/2 years ago. Seems like the times we were alone and had long talks were our best we ever had. Good memories just can't be replaced and I found out how much alike we were. She enjoyed 2 years at the Benton House assisted living in North Kansas City. My husband and I would drive up to visit. She loved Mexican food and then breakfast at the Big Biscuit. She was still comical and cracked jokes all the time. I love you Bevy! Until I see you again, rest in Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Joyce and Gary
