“ I just found a pictured "Angels" of Bev and Linda. My brother Ron was the tow truck driver they needed. He brought to me while they waited for car repair. I had an Adult Foster Home and was hosting my Grandmother's 90th birthday party. These women told me to go outside and join the party while they took over lunch for my clients and much more. I will always remember feeling they were sent by God. Gwen Zwanziger

“ I worked with Bev at the KU gift shop for several years. We had a lot of fun together. I really enjoyed her and appreciated her empathetic nature and her sense of humor. On Halloween she would black out her teeth and had such fun smiling at people. She was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. Bless you Bev for being such a sweet friend. I think about you everyday.

“ My Auntie Bev.....where would I start. She was my Mom's, Retha Hertel, best friend, sister by heart, for 50 years. She was a compassionate, God fearing, determined (some might say stubborn, Lol) lady. She made the best cinnamon rolls. She even made them for her own 80th BD party. She was always smiling and laughing but if she said "two" you best move it and do as you were told.

I know you are watching Auntie Bev. Please say hello to Nancy for me. Red Skelton too. Tell Allen I still think of him every time I hear "Bridge over Troubled Waters".

To the family, may you find peace and comfort in the days that lie ahead. Hugs!

Love, Cindy

I know she is looking down upon us so I have to say to you, say hello to Nancy for me, Red Skelton too. Tell Allen I still think of him every time I hear the song "Bridge Over Troubled Waters.

To the family, may you find peace and comfort in the days that lie ahead. I am thinking of you.

“ This lady was my Mom's, Retha Hertel, best friend, sister by heart, for 50 years. My sisters and I knew her as Auntie Bev. She has been a part of our family for as long as I can remember. She had a genuine heart, compassionate yet very determined. Some might say stubborn. LOL!

My fondest memories.....she was always smiling and laughing but if she said "2" you better do what she told you to do. She made the best cinnamon rolls ever. She even made them for her own 80th BD party.

She will be missed.....especially by my mom. They talked every day. I know you are watching.....please tell Nancy hello for me and Red Skelton too :)

Thoughts and prayers to the family. May you find comfort in the days ahead.

Love, Cindy

“ I am hoping I have the right Bev Terpening. I was a teacher at Somerset School when Bev and her family moved here from California. Her son, Mark, was in my class. My name at that time was Mrs. Stewart. I was so impressed with her as a mother and as a person. I am so sorry to hear of her illness and death but happy to see how many years she was able to enjoy her family and they her. Thinking of you, Mark.
