“ Brown Family, Although I really did not really know Bobby, I know Cindy and Bill. I know he was a loving man and loved all his family. It is so hard to say bye to a man like that! My prayers are with you all now and in the days to come. God's big arms of love will wrap you all in peace and you will go on and complete your journey. We never let go of those we love,, we just learn how to get thru our days without them with us. So wonderful that we have our promise of joining them one day!

“ To the Brown Family! You are a family of strong faith, I know you will miss your husband, Dad, grandpa, he is in a place where he will see Jesus face to face, walk on streets of gold. See his daughter Sheila, and Bob. No more pain, no more growing old. Just one more reason to make heaven your home. I love you all, and have some wonderful memories of Bob. Used to tease him about a house full of girls. He was so kind, and caring. RIP Bobby Brown.
