“ Bonnie welcomed us to her house so many times I can't count to have sleep-overs with her son, Mark. We did so much fun/crazy stuff out there as kids but she could keep Mark and us IN LINE if she had to. I recall her cooking us up a storm when we were hungry. Pepperoni omelets were my personal favorite.

Besides Mark's friends, I recall her having a nephew stay with them for an extended period of time. He became part of the family out there on Renner Rd.

I remember her coming to each and every band concert in the little red Chevy Citation and encouraging Mark to do his best. I know it must have been the same for Amy and her activities.

She loved little kids. Always wanted to know how my children were doing when I saw her later in life. I'm so happy that she got to spend alot of quality time with each of her grandchildren.

She loved little dogs too. I can't remember her not having a small dog and treating it like a small child.

No matter how modest their means were, I certainly remember them having some "stuff" that many of us didn't at the time. Like a Beta Max video player and the 1st Nintendo system. How lucky for this stuff!

I know that "stuff" leaves and memories stay. I'm so glad to have known her and to have shared a little of my life with hers.

My deepest condolences to the Howard family,
Steve Keller
