“ We loved Bonnie very much. She came to help my mother when she was in need. Anytime my mom or dad couldn't find something (because it was put away properly) they would say "call Bonnie she'll know where it's at." She kept my mom company & let my mom lay her head upon her shoulders when she needed comfort. Thank You Bonnie for always being kind . We will miss you. Love You,
Louise & Mike Avery

“ Bonnie was the sweetest lady ever. She helped me thru a hard time talking to me about God and teaching me about God. And she always had a seat next to her at Trinity for me (when I went) so I wouldn't have to sit alone. Her sweetness was hereditary because her daughter Danielle and grandkids Jennifer and Daniel are also the sweetest ever. I was very lucky to have know her and she will be missed.

“ The very best mom three kids could ever have. She was my everything. Strong, brave, beautiful, loving, caring, extremely friendly, but above all she taught us to love Jesus Christ our Savior. I will miss her, I will cry for her, but above all I thank God for her. I will see you again moma!
