“ Carolyn was the first person I knew at my new school. Frances Willard Elementary. She lived a block from my new home. That was the 6th grade. We've been friends ever since. No matter how many months it would be between speaking, we'd pick up right where we left off. When we were pregnant with the younger boys (Brian and Andy) we had driven together in my old Volvo couple to a 7-Eleven to get ice. (Some get-to-together in the park) and a car load of hooligans began cat-calls and woof whistles at us in the parking lot. Both of us being 23 and huge with child...that hadn't happened in a while!!! We couldn't quit laughing, because we knew the fellows would get a rude awakening when we got out of the car. As we plunderously got to the sidewalk, the other car couldn't backup fast enough and peel out!!! We couldn't stop laughing!! I sure love you "C-Marie". Penny Stone Smith
