“ Deedee was the most loving and caring grandma I could have ever asked for. I have many favorite memories with her but I will start with my favorite. Sydney and I went to “Camp Grandma” and we went to her farm house for a while and had so much fun. We played outside, helped her with the animals, watched movies, make crafts (oh how she loved her crafts), helped her and Papa Sharp cook and played all kinds of games. One day at her farm house a cat family showed up to her door and we named them Billy Bob Joe, Princess, Fluffy, and Daddy cat. She loved her animals so much. She would also play barbies with me, play teacher, play house, play cooking, and toy I had she would play with me and have fun with it too. Every event I had she would always be there for me. Holidays with her were the best, we would make cookies every year and go to her house for Christmas Eve. Holidays won't be the same without her. I'll never forget how good her pancakes were, no other pancakes will top hers. She was such a kind hearted person and I am so so grateful to call her my grandma. I love you so much Deedee, thank you for all the happy memories.
