

Cathy Jean Biggs

January 26, 1948 - April 30, 2021

Cathy passed peacefully in her home on Friday, April 30th, surrounded by family and two fur babies, Gypsy and Doug. Cathy was born in Connecticut but grew up in Fairfield, Iowa. Cathy had two sons, Howard Cook of Panama City, Florida and Jeffrey Cook of Kansas City, Kansas; and one daughter, Raychel Lopez-Owens of Kansas City, Kansas.

A young mother, Cathy, packed up her family and set out to start her new life in Kansas City after leaving Iowa. She worked at Fireman's Fund Insurance for 22 years then ended her career with the IRS. She was a very loving, organized, and creative person. She loved horses, her crafts, crocheting, painting, and spending time with her fur babies, Gypsey and Doug. Cathy's top priority was to care and protect her children, grandchildren, and her great grandchildren.

Cathy is survived by three children; 9 grandchildren, Ashley, Christine, Cathy, Nichlos, Caytlin, Jeffrey, Alexcia, and Twins Eddie and Joseph; 8 great grandchildren, Riley, Caden, Landon, Nate, Garrison, Everleigh, Emmett and Jocelyn; brother, Joseph Haynes. She is preceded in death by her siblings, Gary Haynes, Johnny Haynes and Carol Haynes; and parents, Shirley Monroe Milton and Everett E. Haynes.
