“ From the very first time I ever met aunt Charlene it was when Paul and I got married in 2005. She was sweet to me. A stranger and immediately took me in as family, over the years when we would visit she has always opened her house to Paul and I to stay there and our visits were, so calming and we laughed we talked. She is very, very sweet and loving person. I always got the feeling that her family was the most important after God to her. I would have to say one of the most memorable memories of our recent visits was when we brought our dog Abby down and her and Abby just took to each other as if they known each other their whole life. It was sweet. Charlene will be dearly missed by both Paul and I.

“ I've known Charlene since I was born since she and my mom were neighbors and friends since grade school. Best memory is hearing them sing at First Christian Church in my childhood. Played in the background with T-Ray and Michael many times. Had the privilege of being with her at Providence Place for the last month or so. RIP Charlene.
