

Charles K. Boyce

October 29, 1956 - November 22, 2022

Charles K. Boyce was born on October 29, 1956 to parents, Kenneth and Sarah Boyce in Kansas City, Missouri. He passed away peacefully on November 22, 2022 at St. Luke's Hospice House.

As a young man, Charles enjoyed running. He was an accomplished cross-country runner through high school. He loved bowling and spent at least one night a week at the bowling alley. This is where he met Debbie, the love of his life and wife of over 15 years. He was passionate about softball. As a player and later as a coach, he loved everything about the game. Most of his weekends were spent at the softball fields.

Charles is survived by his mother, Sarah; brothers, Robert and Steven; three daughters; four grandsons, and lots of other family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Deborah; father, Kenneth "Bruce", and grandparents Kenneth, Dorothy, Charles, and Sadie "Louise", and uncle, Brad.

In lieu of flowers, donations to St Luke's Hospice House would be appreciated by his family.
