“ I'm Michele, the youngest daughter to Charles and Maxine. This memory is of one of our many motorhome vacations (a Pace Arrow). We had been together for too long in the RV and Dad got so angry that he yelled at us to go get lost. And so we did by climbing up this mountain, along with a few other kids from our campsite. The problem came when we couldn't get Cindy to go back down, as it now looked a LOT steeper than when we climbed up it. So we continued to climb up and over the other side and found a campsite where there a nice couple that drove us back to our site which ended up being a hour plus away. We still laughed at that one, and with each telling of the story, Mom would get mad at Dad. You'll be missed. Give Mom and the VERY LONG list of other family and friends a big hug. We'll be there soon. Love, Mic
