“ You always made me feel like a daughter and always intruded me as Brad's wife. After 32 years of marriage I had two dads & you will always be in my heart. I was there for you and I know you'll be there for me. Love you! Your loving daughter-in-law, Cathy.

“ Grandpa never missed any of our events, rather it be dance recitals, graduations - high school and college, art exhibits, weddings and grandparents day. He was so proud of his children and grandchildren and never stopped bragging. He would carry his camera around to show off photos, or he would have his video camera taping moments he never wanted to forget. He had piles and piles of VHS tapes. We tried so hard to update him with the newest technology, but he would never give up his tapes, haha. I cherished his love for memories and he had a ton. He lived a very good life and was such a fighter. He never wanted to let go. We talked about what we were going to do after he got out of the hospital. Friday was such a sad day, but I know now in my heart he is not suffering, he is living the life looking over us. I miss you Grandpa and I love you so much. Can't wait to see you up in heaven.
