

Chou Her

February 12, 1963 - July 15, 2023

Chou Her was born in Xiangkhouang, Laos on February 12, 1963 to Xaiv Ntaag Hawj and Ntxawm Xyooj. He has 7 brothers and 3 sisters. Chou spent his childhood in several obsolete villages in Laos including Pheeb Loo, Nas Xus, Naj Xees, Looj Ceeb, Phukhaas Huam and Roob Yag. He came to the United States in 1980 as a Hmong Refugee from the Laotian Civil War. Chou Her has lived in Fresno, CA, Santa Anna, CA, and Kansas City, KS. He married his wife Yee Chang on January 1995, where they had 5 children.

On July 15, 2023, Chou Her died from Gastrointestinal Bleeding due to malpractice of ventilator intubation at Advent Health Shawnee Mission Medical Center.

He is survived by his wife Yee Chang alongside their children Sulia Her, Tom Her, Richard Her, Anna Her, and Joyce Her.

Chou Her lived life as an accomplished artist, painter, and craftsmen. He valued beauty above all else. The love for his family extends far beyond his untimely death, as he leaves his family his timeless values of unconditional love, pursuit of truth, and preservation of all that is good.
