“ Chuck was one of the finest men I ever met. I was honored to work with him at P&G. His sense of humor and infectious laugh carried us. Working with Chuck was almost like being on vacation. I remember an older guy telling Chuck "you young guy" even though Chuck was older than he, Chuck seemed so much younger because of his personality. When we would work together and the rest of us were covered in dirt Chuck would be spotless even though he had done his share and then some. We would tease Chuck and he would say you've got to do the work not hug it. I learned a great deal about P&G but more about life from Chuck. The world is definitely a colder darker place today with Chuck's passing. I'm sure the halls of heaven are ringing with the sound of his laughter.
