While I'm waiting on him, the Karate Kid movie menu was on and brought back a flood of memories of when you and I were little and we would karate kick each other in the legs and face and then get in trouble for hurting each other. “ I do not know Craig's family (mom, & sister, brothers, etc.) But I know his family he lived with every day. I used to sit with Craig & Mary at work when they first met and never saw them apart from one another. I know he and Mary loved each other with all their hearts, as well as Mary's kids and father. I went through some tough times several years ago and Craig talked me through it. He and Mary were friends that not only loved me through that dark period, but kept laughing with me until we got on the other side of my troubles. I cannot picture Mary without him. They were definitely each others' rock. He loved her kids and dad like they were his own. In his mind, they were. This is such a tragic thing to happen. So many people loved him and respected him... and still do. I am sorry for everyone's loss. I am sure you all miss your son, brother, uncle, step-dad, and love of your life more than words can say and there is an empty void left. I was so proud that Craig was going to school, making right choices and had people around him that supported him and loved him. The best way I know to honor him is to support those people who he loved, and give them all the love I can. You are so missed already. No one will ever be able to fill your shoes, Craigers.... Until we meet again on the other side, I will remember only good things about you, and always keep your memory alive. My prayer is that you finally have the peace that you have long deserved. Miss you already buddy..... Love, Phyllis.... <3

Craig..This past week I have thought so much about our past. Adam you and I running around... playing pool ,you borrowing my car always returning full of gas and freshly clean ...only so you could take off the girly-stuff....Cigarettes behind washington high school..Night at the "page" Your Birthday party at your mom's when we had the keg. Just sitting on our couch watching t.v. Ozzy fest ..WAR PIGS... You leaving for boot camp,..Adams basement...These are photos in my mind I will have forever,I only wish at the time we knew how much they meant.....God's Speed And a happy flight.....until we see each other again...A.B.C.'S Adam Brown, Craig Stroble, Shannon Brown,Shannon Sewell .....

“ thanks to everyone who shared our day, today. I was truly impressed by the realization that so many had been touched by Craig in life. Even now through his passing he will be bringing joy to persons, by touching their lives with his" done vita."..donation to life. He will live on not only in our hearts, but truly in the Spirit of so many others that can now live. I am proud of my Number One Son, and my First Major Masterpiece.Fly....Eternal Love, MOM

When we first met at work, almost 4 years ago, I knew that you were the one that I had been searching for. We have been through so much together. Been there for each other through tough times and the best of times. I am going to miss so much Baby, your smile, your kisses, hugs, those beautiful brown eyes, all of the I Love You's, snuggling, laying together on the couch watching TV and so much more.I could not have asked for a better Fiance. I know you are watching over me and my family. You will always be a huge part of our lives and be in our hearts forever. Until we meet again in Heaven. I Love You and will miss you so very much.

“ To my only brother...looking back on these last few years, you've been going to school, making better decisions for your future, you were making good grades and I remember reading your facebook posts about how no one could stop you, it made me so proud you were finding your calling in this world we live in. There are so many things I regret, I regret not spending as much time together, I regret not being there for you when you needed someone. I have so many questions and I have to accept there are no answers for me. There is no feeling like this, I will never be able to hug you again, I will never be able to call you again, we will never again be able to be a shoulder for one another. We had so many good times and so many bad times, we went through so much together and I wouldn't trade it for anything in this world. There are so many thoughts running through my head..."I wish" this or "if only" this...

You were a Godfather to my children, no one will ever be able to take your place as "Uncle Craig". My heart aches for them, you were taken too soon from them.

I have been missing you since our last New Years shoot off. I know you are at peace now. Im going to take care of the family now. Rest easy brother. I love you!!!

“ Mary, Kayla and family.

Craig was a wonderful person in the few years that we got to know him. He held a very special place in our 13 year old special needs child. Christopher has great memories of him and will hold them dearly. Craig had so much to live for and so much ahead of him taken way to early that is for sure. He always had a way of making everyone smile and feel good about themselves. Craig will be missed by all and will NEVER BE FORGOTTEN... RIP CRAIG and may your memories live on thru all of us. Mary and Kayla look up in the sky as he is watching every move you make. He will be there with you all the time just not physically. Talk to him cause he is listening, Ask questions he will answer in different ways. Hold close to your heart the years you got to spend with him and remember Kayla he was your dad in his eyes and yours. GOD BLESS YOU ALL
