“ Craig was a fine room mate in the Air Force, a true patriot and a great hang. His devotion to our unit and his country was passionate and unswerving. His earthy humor and no-bull facade revealed a most warm and loving heart that touched us all. We are totally saddened by his untimely passing, and our hearts go out to his family and all who loved him as we do.

“ I am grateful for the life of Mr. Stutzman. Thanks to his service and to the service of others in our armed forces, my family and I have been able to lead our lives in freedom and peace.

“ We did not know Craig that well, but the short time we spent with him was enough to know he was a sweet guy. He will always have a special place within our hearts. Especially since he went on the Swamp Tour and brought his little ice chest with him. I (Sonya) knew he was a true Cajun at heart. Although his visit was brief there will always be an empty spot in our hearts down in Louisiana. We will meet again one day Craig and this time we'll bring the ice chest. Love you ... “ My heartfelt condolences to his mom, Bernice, his sister Gwen and the many members of his family. Craig was a friend to me the entire time we worked together and through the years to the present. He was always willing to train anybody how to operate a military vehicle. That is what I saw made him most satisfied. I also got to know Craig since his military separation. He was always willing to go the extra mile to make things right when we had reunions or get togethers. You could always count on Stutz being there, doing more than what he signed up for. That's just the kind of man he was. I know he is at peace now, and I am so grateful I was able to have called him my friend for so many years. I will miss him. Salute

“ Craig was by far one of the most caring and sincere persons I have ever had the pleasure of being friends with. We served together in the Air Force and he was loved by all. Lately I have also had the pleasure of meeting his Mom and sister Gwen, and now I know where Craig got his loving and caring heart from. My deepest sympathy to Mom and Gwen and the rest of the family and his friends. I feel like I have known you all forever. And I am going to miss Craig a lot. I am glad that he is resting in peace and that someday I will get to see him again.
