“ Dear Cathy, Rodney, and family, I am so sorry. I just heard the news this evening. I haven't seen you all or Cindy for a number of years but the bond most definitely is still there, and always will be. Our parents were best friends and that goes back even further than I can remember. This news resonates deeply and clearly brings into focus how temporary this life is, although it never seemed that way when in the midst of it, growing up and living through so many life events along the way. Cindy always was and is a sweetheart. I have nothing but pleasant memories of her and your family. Time and absence can never change that. I am so sorry, and am right there with you in Spirit. ❤️
