

Daneile Carleen Werner

May 14, 1950 - January 15, 2025

Daneile Carleen Werner, born on May 14, 1950, passed away peacefully on January 15, 2025, surrounded by her loved ones. She was the cherished daughter of Daniel Flinn and Barbara (Roden) Flinn, who preceded her in death, along with her beloved husband, Bob Werner.

Daneile is survived by her sons, James Hestand and Brian Hestand (Katie), her daughter, Kelli Coleman, and her brother, Daniel (Pat) Flinn Jr. She also leaves behind her adored grandchildren, Jacob, Faith, Ian, and Beckett, and her great-grandchild, Cadence, who brought her endless pride and joy.

Throughout her life, Daneile was a source of love and strength to her family and friends. Her warmth, generosity, and unwavering support were deeply cherished by all who knew her. Daneile had a wide range of hobbies and interests that kept her creatively engaged throughout the years. She had a deep love for building with Legos, often losing herself in intricate designs and imaginative structures. Her passion for arts and crafts shone through, whether she was creating handmade gifts or exploring new techniques. Daneile enjoyed finding and experimenting with new recipes, always eager to try something different in the kitchen. However, her most anticipated annual tradition was making her famous noodles, a dish so beloved by her friends and family that they eagerly awaited it each year. Her ability to blend creativity, culinary skills, and craftsmanship made her hobbies uniquely her own.

Visitation will be held on January 22, 2025, from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM at Maple Hill Funeral Home, with a funeral service beginning at 2:00 PM. A graveside service will immediately follow at Maple Hill Cemetery.

“ Mom i want to thank you for making me the man, husband, father and grandfather that i am. Without your love and guidance i would be lost. Through the toughest years of my life you were always a strong voice of reason. Katie and I will cherish the private moments we shared together but regret not sharing more. I am going to miss you more than you know. The holidays are going to be rough. I mean who’s gonna make them damn noodles? I am so thankful that we got to spend this past Christmas with you and your grandchildren and your great grand son. It will be a memory that I will cherish for the rest of my life. From the snake in the washing machine to that damn yellow wiffleball bat you have left me with memories and stories that I can share with Jacob, Faith and Cadence for years to come. I just wish we had more time Mawee. Loosing you will affect me for the rest of my life. I love you mom
