“ Danny was the kind of friend who could keep a guy high by just being with him. He was my best friend during those 'troubled teen years' we all are supposed to suffer through but, with Dan around, who knew trouble! Danny was with me when I was told my mother had passed in '73 and the fact that we went separate ways for most of our days after those years was not the least bit noticeable whenever we came together on occasion. I never said it to him but he was truly as important to me then as could have been any blood brother. It's satisfying to know Dan has reached the special high to which we all aspire. I'm kind 'a envious he beat me there.
