“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Danielle lived in the same house as my son Michael. I LOVED hanging out with Danielle. She was so much fun to talk to. Her favorite candy was Reeses. She was such a sweetie. It just won't be the same without her smiling face. I am so blessed to have had her as my friend.

“ Sending my condolences to the Ditto family. She was a part of my memory back at SFT elementary school, sleepovers, playdates, school bus rides, etc. I remember she used to being upset once we had to be apart after sleepovers that she didn't want them to be over at all - that's one of many ways she enjoyed life. See you later on another side, Danielle.

“ I remember Danielle from my student teaching at SFT. She always giggled and hugged her teachers first thing in the morning when she came in the door. She was an excellent worker and always did her very best in everything she did. I pray for her family to give them strength during such a difficult time. God bless, Jennifer Stiles O'Connor

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of Danielle at Santa Fe Trail Elementary School. She always had such a sweet smile and her pretty hair. She was even more beautiful on the inside, having a beautiful spirit. She had a wonderful work ethic in everything in school. She never gave up even though it might be difficult for her. I will always keep her smile and spirit in my heart.

“ I bet her in elementary school her and her sister as well as Tara and also Kim opened its doors to deaf world. I haven been deaf and hard of hearing my whole life. I finally felt I didn't belong in hearing world because I never fit in I was constantly made fun of before meeting these girls. They shows me signs we shared laughs and a long friendship grew. I left MBS to pruse an aventure at a school with kids had learning disabilities some kids were hard of hearing but these girls are true friends. I also remember in my childhood my uncle and aunt lived in their first house down the street to the twin girls yes we used to have so much fun in back in day. I loved her brave and wonderful outlook on life she just was so high spirits everyday with smile. I always though I would have her but now she angel on outfield looking down us wanting to cherish life remember her with happiness. My fiend I will miss you forever and never let you leave my heart! I be seeing you someday!
