“Lavonne shared the terrible news with Ladonna and me...we share your grief, in Jesus' name...and to know that she can't be there with you certainly adds to our sorrow, and I'm sure, yours as well. We have in Christ Jesus the wonderful assurance of a reunion day..."absent from the body, present with the Lord"...but, oh my, for now, the grief is profound. Oh Lord, ease the pain, and hurt of Danna's loved ones...parting is such a sorrow for those left behind, and the only sweetness in sorrow comes from You...catch them up in Your own heart, in Jesus' name, amen. Lance Anderson I Thes. 4:13-18.

“ I've worked with Danna for almost two years at shawnee gardens and she has never failed at putting a smile on my face. We would always share pictures and stories back and forth of her granddaughter and my daughter. She was definitely a proud mother and grandma, that's for sure. She will be missed by so many. Its a sad day to realize the world will no longer be able to see her sweet face and her smile. Sending prayers to her family.
