They had a favorite spot in the mountains of New Mexico where they camped and fished twice a year for 35 years. When he wasn't traveling, you could find him eating breakfast on Friday and Saturday with his friends, which has been a tradition for over thirty years. Dave most importantly cherished spending time with his family. He is preceded in death by his parents and two brothers. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Pam; two children, Christine Whitney (Dustin) and Mark Warner (Cara); four grandchildren, Caitlyn Smith

(Markus), Dillon Whitney, Nathan Warner, and Sophie Warner; and great granddaughter, Mila Smith.

One of the most caring person I've ever known is David Warner. For 57 years I've had the pleasure of calling David my friend. The passing of David brakes my heart but I know now He is with Father God in Heaven. Rest In Peace David.

“Dave was our neighbor for almost 30 years, right across the street. He and his wife Pam are the dearest people and were always seeking ways to help their neighbors and friends in any way possible.

Dave would not hesitate to give you the shirt off his back literally. Whatever you needed, he was there. He shoveled driveways in the freezing cold, let you know if you left your garage door open, or if there was anything unusual going on in the neighborhood, Dave was on it. A one man neighborhood watch, with loving concern for all of us.

He cared from deep down in his heart and you knew it. Dave was also the strongest witness for the Lord! Indeed, he walked the walk and you knew his faith met the road of life for he did not shirk from telling you the GOOD NEWS of God's love and care for us. If you were straying off and away from the Lord, Dave would shepherd you back with his faithful witness and his life full of kindly actions. Many people can talk the talk but Dave also DID.

Dave had the best sense of humor and would send messages to our phones that were full of wit and funny cartoons, cheering up many a day with a smile.

A light has gone dim in our neighborhood, but that light is not out, for Dave lives on in his beautiful family and in the legacy of a Godly man that few could match in this lifetime.

Dave will be continually missed but we will meet again in that celestial reunion where all our tears will be wiped away.

“ Our prayers go out to Pam and her children. It's been so many years since we've had the pleasure of seeing Dave & Pam, but what great memories we have. Every summer several couples (Sligars, Wakes, etc.) would go to the Warner cabin to swim, fish, ski & eat to our heart's content. Boy, did we have fun!!! God Bless, LeRoy & Dianne Scharnhorst

“ Dave was a very good friend. I worked with and around Dave for many years at the ATSF/BNSF railroad. He had many friends and I don't know anyone that didn't like Dave Warner. He will be greatly missed. RIP Dave.
