Dave was always so nice and kind. Always so welcoming and caring. I am grateful for getting to know him as our families "merged" I am praying for peace of mind for the family because now he is no longer in pain and is free in God's arms.

Dave you are truly going to be missed! You've always been such a sweetheart loving and caring! O remember you would have dinner done in the evenings after Susie and I got off work. Always had a smile on your face. No more suffering for you!!! I pray that God gives the family strength to continue you. Love you

These pictures make me smile. Dave was a family man .and greatly loved. He will be greatly missed. He attended all of our family events. new years eve after butch died I went with he and Anna to the casino. Had a great time. We had our party hats on. At Midnight. They played. Celebrate...he was singing real loud. He was the only one who won some money too it was a lot of fun.. He treated us like his family. I appreciate the way he was so kind to my sister in law.. Rest in paradise. friend
