“ Dave rented space from me and lived in my mobile home for the last six years. He was such a good guy and did many improvements while he was here. He especially got into the gardening, taking care of the plants and lawn. He built a beautiful garden retainer wall out of donated bricks that he hauled in his truck from Castle Rock. He helped me with the memory garden after the death of my daughter and took great interest in the whole process. He also helped the neighbors here in the park with their outside projects. I love to cook and while Dave was here he tried and liked many new foods. Some of his favorites; Marvelous Eggs, Eggs Benedict, Sausage Chowder, Stuffed Shells, Brat Burgers on the grill. He got involved in many of our endeavors here such as decorating for our Halloween Spooky Hollow. Last year we spent days building a lake monster and other assorted creatures. Come Christmas time Dave and I would go wild with the decorations. He got into it as much as I do. He became known as the "Junk Guy" here in the mobile home park. He kept our park clear of the junk. I don't think he saw a pile of metal or an appliance he could pass up without checking it out. Dave also became quite the raccoon wrangler. My mother had a coon take up residence under her mobile. For weeks Dave tried to catch "That little b- - - - d". He would get up at 3 and 4 a.m. and sit in his truck waiting for it come home. He completely fortified the skirting, but the damn thing was always finding a way in. After many days and many sleepless nights Dave won the battle and the coon moved on. Dave also helped me tremendously with my father before he passed, getting up in the middle of the night because my dad had fallen, or I needed help. Dave was always there to help. I have missed Dave since he moved, but looked forward to his phone calls and now I will really miss him. To his family I am so sorry for your loss and offer my sincerest sympathy. ~Gari Reed

“ My name is David Buchanan and I have known Dave for several years while he lived in Castle Rock, Colorado. We enjoyed many laughs while playing poker and enjoying time with two of his closest friends Jesse and Patrick. Dave was a very respected and well liked man - he had a great sence of humor and he will be missed very much. I am very sorry about the unexpected loss of such a great person, my condolences to his family and friends. God Bless - Love David and Jennifer Buchanan.
