“ Dearest David, It's only been about 10 days, and our grief is still very, very, fresh. We would have kept you here with us forever, but only God knows why you went so suddenly. You and I had just talked the night before - Wednesday, the 21st of May - and when you didn't answer you phone the following two evening, I new something was wrong. At long last you are without pain, without worries, and I trust in the hands of a good and loving God who will never leave us or forsake us. Your peace is our peace, and we remember your love and selflessness, and your love for nature and creatures and a small and very demanding JRT. Your will remain precious with us always, and have our love. Kathie
