“ You can sure make a lot of memories in 51 years, and we did. I can't help but crying every time I think of you. My heart is so broken. I hurt so bad for everyone you left behind. I know how much they will miss you in their lives, as I will. We sure saw each other through some times and were support for each other when we needed it. I don't think there is anyone that won't miss seeing your smile and for sure hearing your infectious laugh. You were an awesome friend and I will miss you so much. Rest in Gods arms Debbie and know you took a little piece of those of us that loved you, with you!

“ We may not have always seen eye to eye, like two hard headed people. We were always trading jabs, picking back and forth. When I was a kid I hated it but in some ways I think it made me a stronger person. You were always there to help everyone pick up the pieces and give them a reason to smile when they didn't have one. You were your daughters admirer, yours sons biggest supporter and a little girls best friend. Now we are left to pick up the pieces, to find a reason to smile. As much as you were needed here on earth you were need more to grace God's kingdom. We know your shining down on us and will guide us all to better days. May your body rest in peace and your memories carried with us forever.

Love, Chris
