“ Debbie was not just my sisrer-in-law, but my sister in LOVE. Both coming from families with three brothers, we understood each other. When my own mother passed (whom Debbie took care of in her final days), Debbie stepped into the role of mom as well. When I was injured at work, she took me in and cared for me. She was the one to hold my hand when I gave birth. She was the one I called when the kids were sick or injured. She often counted my children along with her grandchildren. She would count five, two, and two is nine, and then Peggy's three makes twelve. I will miss Debbie more than my own Mother.

“ Debbie came into our lives full of energy, with a handful of precious children in tow. As new neighbors, we quickly fell in love with not only Debbie, but her entire family. Throughout the past 25 years, Debbie has continued to bless the lives of each member of our family in so many wonderful ways. Her laugh could always start at the drop of a hat! She loved Chuck, her kids, and especially her grandkids. Debbie, we miss you, but we know you are rejoicing with Jesus!
