“ *John and family,
I'm so sorry for your loss. Although I never knew Debbie well, there was no doubt what a great mother she was. John, thanks for all the fun memories when we were kids.*

“ Debbie had a soul you only get to meet maybe once in a lifetime, if you are lucky enough. No words will ever describe the true loss this world has of losing deb. I have yet to meet anyone more Brave, Loving & as Honest as she was. She made a place in so many hearts, bc of the true person she will always be. This world lost an amazing soul. Now she is an Angel in heaven w wings, protecting her family & flying anywhere she wants to save the animals. Rest In Peace. Until We Meet Again..

“ I wish I could remember all of the things Deb and I laughed about as young teenagers. We had so much fun together. Like the sled ride we took down the hill by Turkey Creek and I-35. We were on the same sled going down the hill when the sled and I came to an abrupt halt. But inertia got the best of Deb and she kept going - airbound. We weren't hurt, of course, and it was just one of many incidents we had like that in which we laughed about later. It was all so long ago but one thing for sure...Deb never lost her sense of humor.

I was happy when she flew to SC and spent a week with our family when Jerry was in Bible College. Then when he got out she and Bill were gracious hosts as they let us stay with them until we found a place of our own.

We have the utmost respect for both Bill and Deb.

I will also remember Deb's amazing talent for home decorating. Our sympathies to all of her family.

“ The smile in the picture says it all Deb was a full of fun and alot of Love. She was"t real good at Lawn mower raceing cause we had to put a big xx on our shed where she kept running into it. I rember when Denny was sick Deb and Bill let us go down to thier lake house and stay so he could go out on the dock and fish their has to be a better word than friend cause they are so much more. My prayers go out to the Family I know how much you will miss her.

“ I will never forget how much she made my family feel welcomed when her and Bill invited us to their lake house. She was such a great woman made everyone feel welcomed. When we were with Bill and Deb you could tell how much she loved him and he loved her. They were such a pleasure to be around. Bill our prayers are with you and remember the good times because there were many. She loved you so much.

“ Knowing Debi casually since her 7th grade yr. in Rosedale was nothing short of a blessing. Quiet, but funny, beautiful red hair, and a vivacious personality. Debi will always be remembered for the above attributes as well as kind, generous, and an overall loving soul.
