“ Aunt Delores was always so patient and kind. I don't remember ever hearing her raise her voice. Lots of good memories. Love and prayers for their sons and family.

“ In my teenage days, 50 years ago, I considered her my Second Mom. She was so gracious to me, and everyone, when I ran around the neighborhood with Pat, Kevin, and Lonnie. I have nothing but praise for her, Lawrence and the entire Kelley Family, and my tears are out of joy for having known her and I cherished how she was so sweet and interested in giving advice and love.
I'll never forget a picnic and concert at the old Benjamin Stables when I enjoyed her Fried Chicken, topped off by a concert by T. G, Sheppard! Such a wonderful day, and I'll truly miss her! Michael Knight
