“ Everywhere I look in my home, at my office and at my mom's house, I am reminded of Dennis. I don't think there is a surface in these spaces that he did not build or renovate. He was the most gifted carpenter I have ever met. If you could even partially articulate what you wanted, he could build it. Dennis was such a genuinely nice guy and good friend, I would think of unnecessary projects just for the pleasure of his company. He ate more McDonalds breakfast burritos and pizza in my house than I can count:) But in all seriousness, they do not come any better than Dennis Chase. I will be forever grateful for his presence in my life. He was ALWAYS there when you needed him. He would just quietly work and every once in awhile laugh over a story he would share, usually about the kids. He and Angee raised a beautiful family. He was so proud of them. I will really miss him. There just aren't enough words to express how much respect I have for him. Angee and Jen, if you need a tender shoulder or listening ear , I am a phone call away.
I love you, Donnie
