*Devan,
this is just not real to me. . i cant understand why it was your time to go. . I want you to know you will be missed so much by so many people, but your kids will be the ones missing you the most! your little princess and big man loved there daddy so much i promise you that i will NEVER let them forget you. . . you are now their angle looking over them every day of there life. . i know you will stay with them every day, watch them grow into the beautiful adults that we know one day they will become. . . im doing what i know you would want me to and im staying strong for the kids. . im telling them how much you love them and how you will always be their daddy. they cannot see you anymore but you are in their hearts. . forever. . .
